

Accessibility Statement

Hevingham Parish Council is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.2 AA standard, due to the non-compliances listed below:

- the text will not reflow in a single column when you change the size of the browser window
- some documents contain tables which may not be fully accessible
- you cannot modify the line height or spacing of text
- most older PDF documents are not fully accessible to screen reader software
- some finance-related documents are scanned images which cannot be read by a screen reader

Contact us

We're always looking to improve the accessibility of this website. If you find any problems not listed on this page or think we're not meeting accessibility requirements, or if you'd like to request information in a different format, please contact the parish clerk.

To make the best use of our website with a range of devices, use the My Computer My Way's guide to using assistive technologies.

Last updated

This statement was last checked in 17 February 2026. We tested the website using <https://wave.webaim.org/> on 17 February 2026 according to WCAG 2.2 AA standards which guide our long term audit and improvement plans, and will next review it in February 2027. The main structural and design elements of the site were found to be WCAG 2.2 AA standard compliant on that date.

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations').

If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS) - Equality Advisory Support Service \(EASS\) - GOV.UK.
